The Bible Series, a set of 105 hand colored prints in which Marc Chagall translates Old Testament stories into compelling images, was gifted to Marquette in 1980 by Patrick and Beatrice Haggerty. The museum recently received a generous grant from the Haggerty Family Foundation to underwrite the production of a hard bound catalog being produced in conjunction with a fall 2015 exhibition of the material. The volume will contain color reproductions of the full suite of prints along with the Biblical passages that inspired each work. Three scholarly essays, including a newly commissioned essay from Susan T. Goodman, Chagall scholar and Senior Curator Emerita at The Jewish Museum, New York, will also be included.
