

MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY

Center for the Advancement of the Humanities

CfAH & WIN present...

Humanities & Career Diversity Breakfast

PANELISTS

Mike Cummings

Cummings Security Consulting, LLC

Sterling Knox

Children's Healing Center, Red Lake Nation

Laura McGough

University Research Co. & CHS

Silas Morgan

Showcraft

In person

Raynor Library
Beaumier Suites

B & C

[virtual option available]

The Center for the Advancement of the Humanities (CfAH) and WIN invite you to a special humanities career exploration breakfast. Attendees will have the opportunity to network, and hear panelists discuss how they are putting their humanities skills and graduate training to work in diverse fields. Maggie Nettesheim Hoffman, associate director at Humanities Without Walls and history PhD candidate will moderate the event.

March 30th, 8:30 AM

Click HERE to register.