

IWL PAY EQUITY SPEAKER SERIES

ON PAYCHECK FAIRNESS & EQUITY AUDITS

02.16.21

1:00 PM Central

Jocelyn Frye

Opening this series, Jocelyn Frye, a senior fellow at the Center for American Progress, will draw from her accomplished professional portfolio as a lawyer, advocate, and government servant to present on the importance of paycheck fairness and the need for equity audits to achieve real pay equity. Jocelyn Frye's work focuses on a wide range of women's issues, including work-family balance, pay equity, and women's leadership across several service sectors.

americanprogress.org presented by...

Kelly Ritchie

Kelly Ritchie is the senior vice president of employee services at Lands' End, an organization committed to creating an inspiring culture that is welcoming, safe, and inclusive for all. Having devoted her career to creating a great place to work, Kelly Ritchie will share how conducting equity audits to help achieve paycheck fairness has elevated all involved.

landsend.com

Click here to REGISTER.