

THE CENTENNIAL
CELEBRATION OF

Women at Marquette

EXCELLENCE, FAITH, LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

Finding Synergy in Women's Lives

Alumnae of the Helen Way Klingler College of Arts and Sciences will share their life experiences and discuss how the pillars of the Marquette mission influenced their personal and professional lives.

Tuesday, March 30, 2010

4:30 p.m.

Raynor Memorial Libraries Beaumier Suites

Reception to follow

Barbara Busch, Arts '64, history and political science
Retired career Peace Corps officer and community volunteer

Camille Devaney, Arts '63, biology and chemistry, Grad '66
Manager of technical support for Abbott Laboratories, former assistant professor, and mother of three and grandmother of two

Maura Devine, Arts '92, English
President of Devine PR, former journalist, and wife and mother of three

Moderated by Dr. Amelia Zurcher
Associate professor of English and director of Marquette's
Women's and Gender Studies Program

MARQUETTE
UNIVERSITY

Be The Difference.