

Please join us for

China and America in the 21st Century: Democracy and Dictatorship, War and Peace

with Dr. Barrett McCormick

January 21, 2010 | Cudahy 001 | 5–6 p.m.

Light refreshments will be served.

Prof. McCormick has been at Marquette University since 1984, except for two years beginning in 1991 spent at the Australian National University. He specializes in Chinese politics and his current research project is about Media Markets and the Transformation of China's Public Sphere. Previous projects include edited volumes and articles on U.S.-China relations [with Edward Friedman, What If China Doesn't Democratize? (ME Sharpe, 2000)] and comparing China to Eastern Europe and East Asia [with Jonathan Unger, The Future of Chinese Socialism (ME Sharpe, 1996)]. McCormick's publications also include Political Reform in Post-Mao China (California, 1990), and articles in journals such as The China Journal, Journal of Asian Studies, Pacific Affairs, Issues and Studies and Twenty-First Century. In August 2009 Prof. McCormick became the chair of the Political Science Department.

Future Presentations to Include

February 11—Dr. Julian Hills, Theology

March 11—Dr. Susan Mountin, Manresa

April 15—Ronald Zupko, History

The Honors Program continues The Last Lecture Series! Faculty members are invited to address a specific topic from the popular viewpoint: "If this were the last lecture of your career, what would you say?" The lectures will be offered the third Thursday of every month in the AMU at 5 p.m.

The program is open to students, faculty, and the entire Marquette community.

The Honors Program Lecture Series

If this were the last lecture of your career, what would you say?

For more information, please contact Maria Cooper at Maria.cooper@marquette.edu.