

Spring 2012 - CPS Announcements

Shelley Bobb, Master in Dispute Resolution '11, presented a paper at The European Communication Research and Education Association's conference titled: Interpersonal Communication and Social Interaction, Belfast, September 7-9, 2011.

Ricky Bond, Bachelor's in Organization and Leadership '99, Contracting Officer, led the way in the Veteran Administration's awarding of $1,993,280,098.00 worth of construction contracts into the U.S. economy. This was accomplished by contracting primarily with service-disabled, veteran-owned small business firms to rebuild and repair the VA's physical plant infrastructure.

Dr. Kathleen Dale, Adjunct Assistant Professor, authored a book published by Antrim House, Rescue Mission. For more information, visit Kathleen's website at <https://sites.google.com/site/kathleenandale/>

Dr. Robert Deahl, Dean, authored a book chapter, "Professional Education as Transformation," within a book titled In Search of the Whole, Twelve Essays on Faith and Academic Life, John C. Haughey, SJ, Editor.

Emily Hernandez, Bachelor's in Organization and Leadership and Professional Communication '08, Graduate Certificate in Leadership Studies '11, Graduate Program Assistant, and her husband Reuben, became proud parents of a baby girl, Josephine Andrea Hernandez, born on December 14, 2011. Josephine weighed 7 pounds and was 19 inches long.

Moira Kelly, Adjunct Instructor – Graduate Program in Dispute Resolution, was awarded the Melvin Lurie Labor-Management Cooperation Prize by the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee (UWM) on September 26, 2011. The prize honors outstanding contributions to the promotion, creation or research of labor-management cooperation.

Mekisha Linton, Bachelor's of Professional Communication '10. As a member of the YMCA Black Achievers program, Mekisha was recognized as the 2011 Adult Achiever Award, which is the highest honor extended to an adult volunteer. In addition, she received the 2011 Champion Achiever of the Year Award for the highest number of volunteer hours during the program year.

Earnell Lucas, Bachelor's in Criminology and Law Studies '00, has been named vice president for educational programming and investigative services Major League Baseball's Department of Investigations.

Felisa Parris, Master in Leadership Studies '09, Academic Adviser – Graduate Programs, placed second in a leadership case study competition at the 2011 International Leadership Association conference in London.

Shirley Sciacca, Bachelor's in Psychology student, has been named Technical Information Specialist to Supervisory Administrative Specialist, Federal Bureau of Investigation.

William Singleton, Graduate Certificate in Dispute Resolution '11, Police Officer, Milwaukee Police Department, is a 2012 recipient of the Business Journal's Forty under 40 award.

Ryan Widor, Bachelor's in Psychology student, and Tara-Rae Widor, Bachelor's in Criminology and Law Studies and Psychology student, welcomed the birth of a baby boy, Grant Robert Widor, born on December 23, 2011. Grant weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces.

Treesa Woods, Master in Leadership Studies '11, and Dr. Jay Caulfield, Associate Dean, co-presented at the October 2011 International Society for the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (ISSOTL) conference in Milwaukee.

Share Your News

To contribute announcements or other news items, please contact Cindy Lorentzen, Marketing Director, at (414) 288-7465 or cindy.lorentzen@marquette.edu or Lisa Youretz, Director of Adult Student Advising, at (414) 288-3908 or lisa.youretz@marquette.edu.