Mission Week

Each February, the Marquette community pauses to reflect on our University's Catholic, Jesuit mission. Mission Week is a time for our community to set time aside to recall our larger purpose in life and the Ignatian heritage and spirituality that guides us throughout the year. Please join your community as everybody explores their true meaning in life and the ways that they can become better human beings. Make this week one you will never forget, truly connect with your values and try to make a change in our community.
