The residence hall room selection process for returning students for the 2008-2009 academic year will begin in early March with the collection of the $200 non-refundable housing deposits. All unmarried first and second-year students, regardless of academic classification, are required to live in university residence halls.

All students are given a random assignment time with current first year students having the earliest assignment times followed by all other returning students.

The actual on-line sign-up process will begin on Wednesday, March 26. Additional information about the selection process will be emailed to students in late February and will be available on the web at http://www.marquette.edu/orl/.

Check out Remove the Blindfold!

Remove the Blindfold is a university-wide program modeled after a well-known event called Tunnel of Oppression, which is organized on a number of college campuses across the country. It allows participants the opportunity to explore various forms of oppression and discrimination.

Marquette’s Remove the Blindfold is structured to be a Museum of Oppression with exhibits intended to be eye-opening, conscious building, and is targeted at students who have rarely experienced difference.

Remove the Blindfold will take place from February 24 to March 1 in the Mashuda Ballrooms.
