Come watch Bob Barker and Drew Carey duke it out at MU Game Show! The RHA sponsored MU Game Show is Marquette University’s version of the Price is Right!! This event allows students from all over campus to participate in fun filled games and have the opportunity to win awesome prize packages, with most attendees walking away with prizes!

MU Game Show is March 29 at 9 p.m. in the Weasler. Students can buy the $5 tickets the week before Spring break in the halls, the week of the program in the Union, or at the door!

Need a place to live over Spring Break?

All residence halls except Mashuda Hall will be closed for Spring Break (March 13 – 24). The halls close at Noon on Thursday, March 13 and re-open at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, March 24. The Guest Wing is also available in Mashuda Hall during Spring Break for students who are assigned to other residence halls. Students may sign up for accommodations in the Guest Wing at the Office of Residence Life. The cost of staying in Mashuda Hall or the Guest Wing is $20 per person per night. There will be no overnight visitation or dining services. Students who do not sign-up for break housing prior to March 10, must have approval by the Residence Hall Director.

Wanna make a difference on campus?

Do you want to develop your leadership skills while having fun? Run for the Residence Hall Association Executive Board! RHA is an organization dedicated to improving life for all residents living in the residence halls through creative programming and hall improvements. If you are interested in getting involved, we are now accepting applications for all positions. Applications for Secretary, Treasurer, National Communications Coordinator, Parliamentarian, and Publicity Coordinator are due Wednesday, March 26 to ORL.

Feel free to drop by the RHA office on the first floor of Carpenter, or come to our meetings every Monday night at 7:30. If you have any questions, email RHA at marqrha@mu.edu or check us out and get the application online at www.marquette.edu/rha.

Basketball Idees of March

By: Henry V. Porter

The gym lights gleam like a beacon beam
And a million motors hum
In a good will flight on a Friday night;
For basketball beckons, “Come!”
A sharp-shooting mite is king tonight.
The Madness of March is running.
The winged feet fly, the ball sails high
And field goal hunters are gunning.

The colors clash as silk suits flash
And race on a shimmering floor.
Repressions die, and partisans vie
In a goal acclaiming roar.
On a Championship Trail toward a holy grail,
All fans are birds of a feather.
It’s fiesta night and cares lie light
When the air is full of leather.

Since time began, the instincts of man
Prove cave and current men kin.
On tournament night the sage & the wight
Are relatives under the skin.
It’s festival time, sans reason or rhyme
But with nation-wide appeal.
In a cyclone of hate, our ship of state
Rides high on an even keel.

With war nerves tense, the final defense
Is the courage, strength and will
In a million lives where freedom thrives
And liberty lingers still.
Now eagles fly and heroes die
Beneath some foreign arch
Let their sons tread where hate is dead
In a happy Madness of March.
